The marshals and their alds are to be mounted. There will be fine ban-ners in the parade, and each labor union proposes to present just as good an appearance as any other union and a great sight better. There will be a number of floats, gotten up in artistic style, and the intention is to make this parade the best and largest in the history of Utah labor displays. The judges to award prizes of $15 and $10 to the two unions making best general appearance will be composed of one representative from the Herald, "News" and the Telegram. Some special features of the parade will be the team drivers' and expressmen's unions with about 125 wagons filled with children of union men, each of whom will carry a small national flag. The hack driv-ers' union will have about 15 carriages, in which will ride the wives and daughters of union men.

The positions of unions in parade will be governed by date of charter, the oldest taking precedence in the various

RAINED ALL NIGHT. Heavy Precipitation at Brighton and Park City.

A telephone message from Brighton to the "News" this afternoon was to the effect that there was a heavy downfall of rain at that place and at Park City last night. The atmosphere was already cool there and the storm caused a further decided dropping in the tem perature, a fact that will cause a speedy and pretty nearly complete migration from the resort to the city. The clear-ing out will be almost over within the course of the next few days.

LIKES SALT LAKE.

New York Physician Notes the Absence of Poor People Here.

Dr. Lee K. Frankel, manager of the United Hebrew Charities, is in Salt Lake on a visit with his wife, who is a cousin of the Hanauers. They have just been on a trip to the Yellowstone National park, and are now putting in a little time in looking at the attractions of the City of the Saints. Dr. Frankel said this afternoon that he liked the city very much, and was pleasantly surprised at finding so little poverty here. In New Yorw he naturally sees an immens amount of it in his official capacity. The greatest sufferers, that is the greatest number of sufferers that come under his observation, are Russian Jews, driven from their own land, who came to the more hospitable shore of the United Stats for the liberty that they are denied at home. He said the charity organization, over which he presides, received applications for assistance from 11,000 families representing 50,000 people last year. It may be said Dr. Frankel, that some of these poor Hebrews will be sent into the west to find and build homes for themselves.

SCARED BY FOOTPAD.

Last night a young man named Stimmer Simpson attended a surprise party at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Smith, 433 west Fourth South street. When it was over he started home. He had not gone far, however, when he, too, was surprised. A stranger jumped out from behind a tree and told him to throw up his bands. But Simpson didnt do it. He preferred to throw dust in the face of his impudent and sudenly made friend, by taking to his heels and running like a scared wolf. He ran directly to the residence of Mrs. Smith which he had just left and with her son returned to the place of the Smith which he had just left and which her son returned to the place of the attempted holdup. When they got back Mr. Footpad had disappeared.

YOUNG WOMAN'S JOURNAL

The Sseptember number of that excellent publication The Young Women's Journal, is out and presents an unusually attractive appearance, with its interesting articles and illustrations. The opening story is by Miss Christine D. Young, whose clever stories appear frequently in the Journal, and is embellished with some excellent illustrations done by the author herself. Miss Stella Neff contributes an entertaining account of the Utah Press excursion, acpal scenes visited by the party, and besides these are many other interest-ing articles contributed by local writers. A feature which will be of interest to a large number of these latter is the announcement of a prize of $25 to be awarded for the best Christmas story from 2,500 to 3,000 words, all storles to be in by Oct. 20.

DESERTER ARRESTED.

Detective Gillespie this morning brought into police headquarters a hard-looking individual, on suspicion of being a deserter by the name of Hughes from company A, Twelfth infantry, at Fort Douglas, some time ago. The young man practically admitted that he was an ex-soldier, and gave the name of Sweeny. Despite sulphurous objections on his part he was locked up pending investigation.

Dr. Odell Says If He Had Reached Her Three Hours Before, Her Life Might Have Been Spared.

An unusually sad death was that of Mrs. Annie Huber, wife of Simon Huber, who resides near the corner of Seventh South and Thirteenth East streets, which occurred about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It is claimed that the woman died through lack of medical assistance; as it seems that members of the family had been endeavoring since 7 o'clock in the morning to get a physician, but were unable to find one who could reach the bedside of the woman until an hour after her death. o'clock' Annie, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Huber, went after Dr. Mayo, the county physician, but could not find him; at 11 o'clock she went after another doctor, but he could not be found. Early in the afternoon it is said she again went after Dr. Mayo, who said he was too busy and would send another physician in his place. About a quarter to 5 o'clock he sent Dr. T. G. Odell to visit the unfortunate woman, but he arrived too late, she having died about an hour before. The woman was about to be accouched and Dr. Odell stated by the first stated with the sent of the control of the sent of and Dr. Odell stated that if he could have reached her three hours earlier he could have saved her life.
